Caution

Fara Young

It lies within every human being's soul,
Sometimes it is suppressed and it never surfaces;
But many times it engulfs the whole persona,
When it does, everyone becomes a victim.
It is the impetus of double-dealing, deceit, or death,
Mayhem, malice, or maybe murder;
To some, a president's green face is so desirable,
That they themselves turn green with envy.
It stings like a bee,
And it torments like a nightmare;
It causes some to crave things as chocoholics do,
Or the dice gamblers use.
Voracious, avaricious, rapacious – greed,
For it hibernates in everyone;
Sometimes it can emerge and spread,
Thus we must all beware.
