To Stefani

Mehgan Pearl

The superficial drowns in the loyalty.
Words are silenced with meaning.
Selfishness is obsolete.
My hand drifts across your cheek to dry the salty drop away.

No one understands understanding.
No one will hear how to listen.
No one upholds honesty.
But somehow you defy all obstacles to live in undying love.

You pull my hands from my eyes.
Shallowness is merely protection.
The ideal rests within faults.
You revived my consciousness when the blind and deaf deluded me.

Your voice guides me.
Your perseverance inspires me.
Your heart supports me.
Without you, my friend, I would have never learned to fly.
