Deception

Matt Feltz

How do I know what's true anymore?
She's mixed fact and fiction so much,
I've added my own opinions to the blend,
And it's left me dazed and wondering.

How do I know whose side she's on?
She's appeared to be my ally, my friend,
Or maybe I've just portrayed it that way,
And it's left me bitter, feeling betrayed.

How can I ever find the truth I seek?
She's thrown her net of lies upon me,
I've further entangled myself in trying to escape,
And it's left me blind and confused.

How can I see through her deception?
She's appealed to me to get what she wants,
And I've loyally followed – the trusting fool –
And it's brought me back here, right where I started.
