In This Light

Dan Hernandez

So, let's talk
What's on your mind
Have I been slipping in and out of your memory?
Do words come and go in the night?
Demanding attention
Receiving none
I'd understand
It's always been that way for us, I suppose
Nothing is ever easy
Erasing the past isn't as simple as it sounds
Is it?
You must know that by now

What?
You don't dream of me,
You must dream of something
Is it sharp?
Scary perhaps
Black of hue and twice as ugly
In this light it reminds me of you
Some days you get the bear
The bear always gets me
Always
Is it my nature?
You bring out the worst in me
The death of me
I could never let you go
That's why you can never be mine

And the fan keeps twirling
◦ I deserve it
No comfort
No shelter
Gimme Shelter
Or leave me alone
What do you want from me?
Why do I keep finding my way back to you?
It isn't as though you'll have me
Or I'm even open to an offer
Yet there you are
Enigma
I'll unravel you

There is some strange chemistry
That makes us react
Will there be sparks?
An explosion perhaps?
We'll see
I'm back, but not to stay
I feel like I should say I love you
I won't though
Far too simple
And I won't insult your intelligence
We were never about love
I'm just here for the moment
So, let's talk
