True Love

Liz Nochimson

Love is a friendship between two people that cannot be described,
Different things happen to different people in their lives and in their minds.

It might happen during a poetry reading or through a piece of art,
Whatever it may be, two people in love can never stay apart.

Love is a force that not even gravity can withstand,
Once love is found the work is in the person's hands.

Many emotions happen when two people are in love
When they are apart, they miss each other and pray to the stars above.

They pray that their loved one is safe and hasn't found another love,
They are two greedy people wanting him or her for one another.

When two people in love are together,
They experience the beauty of each other.

They refuse to leave each other's side,
And say "I do" to be together for the rest of their lives.

Becoming husband and wife,
Battling the obstacles is part of their life.

Losing a baby can hurt a person's relationship,
But two people in love need each other more to get through it.

Then the time comes when people get old,
They suffer from Alzheimer's or even a stroke.

This might be the end for people who are not in love,
But to lovers, this is just an obstacle that needs to be solved.

Although it might be tough,
True love will always win.
