The Summer Storm

Kevin Jacobs

It starts with a soft breeze
And you hear the rustle of the trees
The clouds turn black
And all you hear is rumble, rumble, rumble
The lightning lights the sky
And with each strike it sizzles, sizzles, sizzles
The rain begins softly until the clouds burst
Which allows the plants to quench their thirst
The wind is howling like a witch's curse
And you wait and watch until the clouds disperse.
