The Soldier

Meghan Pearl

I'm fighting for something
I'm noble and strong
They smile and nod 'cause I sing the right song

I am good at this something
Understand my cause
The people all praise me for lacking in flaws

I'm fighting for something
My shoes fit just right
I'm impassioned and driven; I'm shining the light

I'm searching for "something"
A face in the throng
Several are smirking, they've known all along

I'm fighting for "something"
I've hit a brick wall
It seems what I fought for was nothing at all

I want to feel something
When I look in the mirror
But the image I've known has now disappeared

I fought for something
Unreal and shallow
This war was made for the fault of the callow
