The Eyes of the Terrorist

Jordan Kaufman

I have been enraged for life.
You carpetbaggers fail to see.
Eternal strife
Has always lingered in me.

Your commercialism leads to destruction.
Destruction foments my rage.
As you recklessly flock,
I prudently plot.

I just can't take it!
Preservation of nature means too much.
Your actions, though innocent,
Will lead to your demise!

Why has the time finally come?
My anger is at its pinnacle.
While you blindly corrupt nature,
I can tolerate no more.

Cutting, chopping, cultivating
Mother Nature is the same no more.
Heaven has become an inferno.
I am outraged!

Bang! Bang!
I have righted nature's ship.
Murdering you sinners
Has avenged my loss.

How do I feel?

My job has just begun.

My quest has taken its root.

The revolution has begun!!!
