LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

This issue of JADARA (VOLUME 29, NUMBERS 3 AND 4) is a double issue. Occasionally we find it necessary to combine issues because of time overruns and budgetary considerations. As a result of delays caused by changes in personnel responsible for production of JADARA, your editor has found himself a number of issues behind. In an attempt to catch up, while saving in production and mailing costs, the ADARA board has decided to produce a combined issue. As a result of this effort we should be able to bring you Volume 30, NUMBER 1 in the early Fall and be back on schedule. Thank you for your consideration.

As usual, when I write such letters, I must make an appeal for submission of articles, book reviews, information of general interest, or your own personal view on a controversial topic. The quality of JADARA is closely linked to the number of manuscripts it receives. Let me assure you that we are not overwhelmed with quality manuscripts. Yours will be given careful consideration.

So, get yourself to your keyboard! Tell us what you are doing, what you are reading, and give us your opinions. This is one way you can introduce yourself to the membership of ADARA.
