Author Bio

Daniel is a junior student in the Halmos College of Arts and Sciences at Nova Southeastern University majoring in art and design with a minor in digital media production. He was born and raised in New York and resides currently in Davie. This upbringing inspired him to value creativity, innovation, and networking which helped lead him towards the user-experience and web development realm as a technology entrepreneur. He works two remote internships and one web design side hustle and in this upcoming summer, he looks forward to partaking in a 16-week design program with IBM. He is enthusiastic about furthering his investing and creative skills thanks to his family's mentorship.
