Author Bio

Diana is an undergraduate student at Nova Southeastern University majoring in business marketing with minors in graphic design and transdisciplinary studies. Minnesota-born and South Florida-raised, Diana enjoys spending time with her family and exploring the beautiful tropical landscapes in her community. Her passions include designing, traveling, and playing classical music on the piano. In her free time, Diana experiments with different art styles and creating work that bridges the gap between art and design. She strives to embed meaning and purpose into her work. In the future, she hopes to open her own marketing and graphic design business.
