Author Bio

Jada is a senior at Nova Southeastern University majoring in communication with a concentration in digital media production. Jada was originally from Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania, and moved to Davie, Florida in 2019 to continue her education after graduating from a local community college. Jada began dabbling in creative outlets at a young age involving herself in dancing, acting, and playing multiple instruments but mainly the viola. Although she no longer partakes in these specific activities, she continues to express herself creatively by producing and editing videos and doing freelance graphic design jobs. Jada has a deep passion for learning about and fighting social injustices to make the world a better place for future generations to come.
