Scarred

Amanda Foreman

Bleeding hearts
left behind,
shine as one
by light of the sun.
An angel in red
drops a tear from her eye,
filling the empty space.

Roses sprout from thorns.
Petals expand;
an angel's wings.
Sun rises,
dying the sky.

The clouds open up;
release lightening,
striking the trees
now screaming with flames.
Rain falls hard
extinguishing the fire,
soothing the land.

The heat is gone,
but ashes remain;
a reminder, a scar,
of blood and pain.
