Wrapped In Tulle

Author Bio

Nicholas' art explores his identity as a queer individual from south Louisiana. His most recent artwork explores his relationship with his childhood and growing up in a conservative space where he was not allowed to express himself as he genuinely wanted to. He uses the clown as a muse for his artwork, representing himself as an individual who is and was perceived as an entertainment oddity, someone who does not really fit into the normal sphere of the world.

Artist Statement

"'Wrapped in Tulle' shows its subject lost and trapped in tulle looking off into the distance wondering about the curiosities and emotions that will be present in their future life. "
