Trickster Spirit

Author Bio

Courtney is currently finishing her third year as a pharmacy student at Nova Southeastern University College of Pharmacy (NSUCOP) and is preparing to start clinical rotations. She is interested in compounding as it encompasses her interests in art and science. As an artist, she finds that this concept of compounding is very similar to mixing oil paints. In her free time, Courtney loves to draw and paint as they are great stress relievers and lets her take a bit of time - whether it is fifteen minutes or two hours - to be creative.

Artist Statement

"'Trickster Spirit' comes from a series of previous works where they all have the same style of mysteriousness. My inspiration for this piece comes from the Japanese kitsune or fox spirit. It is also known by several different names in various cultures. Kitsunes are known to be tricksters and I want the viewer to imagine what they think is behind the mask."
