Irony Is Lovely

Shari Grunspan

Happiness;
trust,
peace;
life is perfect.
Looks as if nothing
can touch it.
Takes only one minor detail,
one short event
for everything to change.
Love was sweet,
but revenge
became sweeter.
Nothing else matters.
Eyes closed, minds set,
only one thing
can ease
the pain.
Hatred,
determination,
greed
overcome all other
emotions;
one will stop
at nothing,
like a tornado,
seizing everything
in its path,
to get satisfaction,
to gain retribution.
Ironic how people who say the least

know the most.
Questions,
assumptions,
suspicions growing,
seeking revenge
so sweet,
you can almost taste it like the smallest grain of sugar lingering
on a craving tongue.
Lovely,
Isn't it?
