Loss of Sight

Author Bio

Iksita Nallapaneni is an art and pre-med minor and public health major. She has always been an avid artist, but the tools and education provided by NSU have helped her become more comfortable sharing her art. She uses her art to depict emotions from her past and as a way to gain closure.

Artist Statement

"This piece was created as I was exiting a very distressing time in my life. I had recently begun therapy and was using art to express myself. I had finally been experiencing clarity as opposed to the 'loss of sight' and clouded judgement, and painted this as a way to move past this stage in my life."
