Faith

Stephanie Simon

To believe what you can't see,
To trust what you can't touch,
To know without proof,
Faith.

A blind step,
A knowing feeling of the soul,
A belief in an incorporeal force,
Faith.

The unwavering confidence of a dying man
Without miracles or physical proof
That a greater power will save him,
Faith.

The sure step of a blind man
Into the busy street, unwavering,
Accompanied by his trusty dog,
Faith.

The confident grin of a child
Arm bruised, cheek still wet with tears
When her father says everything will be fine,
Faith.

The feeling of security
Ignoring everything around her
When a woman is in her lover's arms,
Faith.

Knowing deep down inside
Despite of all the heinous things that happen
That people are good at heart,
Faith.

A uniting force
Man to man, man to G-d
Connecting all things,
Faith.
