Moving On

Ekta Nagar

The grass thrives in the yards of many.
It grows, dancing to the movement of the sun.
Children run through the yard and men cut its hair.
Yet it continues to grow without hesitation,
Without stopping.

The river streams through the meadow.
It flows to the music of the wind
Pebbles sit at the bottom and salient rocks rest on the bank.
Yet, it continues to flow without hesitation,
Without stopping.

The sun floats through the mighty heavens.
It glows effortlessly, showering its radiant beams.
Planets spin around and, once in a while, block it.
Yet it continues to glow without hesitation,
Without stopping.

The life given to a human jumps with joy and sorrow.
It grows like the grass but when killed stops growing.
It flows like the river but when blocked stops flowing.
It glows like the river but when darkened stops glowing.
A lesson to be learned, a lesson of moving on.
