Life's Road

Jessica Borushok

If life is an unchosen road,
How can it be predetermined?

If it's a preplanned journey,
How can our actions choose our path?

Are we Fated? Already mapped out?
Or do we walk a dark, clouded path, uncertain and undefined?

Our mistakes can determine our next direction,
But was it known we'd make those mistakes?
Does fate open our eyes?
Or does free will close them?

Are we destined to succumb to our pre-chosen lives?
Do we strive to live freely, blinded to our path
Until its uncertain end?
Do we just not know?
Or do we just not care?

Because it doesn't matter how the road's paved
Or the journey's woven –
Just as long as we're living it out.
