One Simple Word

Gillian Mayersohn

Only so much I could do,
And I did the best I could.
There is no rhyme or reason.
It is out of my control.
I just need to wait for one simple word.

I count the days until I hear;
However, waiting seems to be the worst part.
I congratulate or console those who know,
Yet I envy them.
They have heard the one simple word.

Hundreds to choose from,
And more than one I love.
Life is what I make of it,
So I will have an amazing experience anywhere.
I cannot decide until I hear that one simple word.

Thousands of emotions rush through my mind:
Anticipation, anxiety, nervousness.
Who knows what the outcome will be.
Everything happens for a reason.
The next four years to be determined
By one simple word.
