COSMIC CHRIST

R.J. GROHMAN

A galactic man with fire as flesh, fire as armor, fire as his taker and giver,
Holds up a peaceful right hand.
A globe, designed by all crucified, floats by his chest.
His mother intently blesses the pained earth.
He points to the planet – the blue and bloody world – to show –
Show what?
The painful events that are guiding us to our demise?
The hope for a world unevolved?
That we decide?
Cosmic Christ, your surroundings show a reality of hurt and mystery.
Yet you bear
A smile that says,
"I know what you may only imagine to grasp."
If it is faith, we are doomed.
If it is knowledge, we are doomed.
If it is timing, we are doomed.
But if it is wisdom, we are saved.
In the silence, I hear him speak:
"In due time."
