Alliteration

By Sarah Gordon

Alliteration provides plenty of possible
Pictures to be painted.

Sit on a swing and sing the song of similar sounding syllables.

Slip together simple sentences,

Dripping with nothing but nonsense.

Let your lips line up a list of

Little words, staccato stings of unrealistic symmetry.

Hop over to the house of wilting words and

Revitalize their racing hearts.

Quench the quivering, pulsing, bleeding banter

And let it live.

Bring back to life the ways of those words

And work their mystical magic.

There are only so many looping lines

I can randomly write about awesome alliteration.

I've reached my looping limit.
