A New Beginning

By Danny Sepler

Change this, change that,
Change your boots, change your hat.
What happens when you stay the same?
Well, what happened to John McCain?
But change also means a new start,
A new beginning, a new heart.
And every time that you change,
You also keep a part of yourself inside,
Not to hide, but to Remember the old you,
So that change doesn't hold you and mold you
Into somebody that isn't a bold you,
Just a sold you.
When you change, it is a new beginning,
But spinning on the wild wheel of change too often
Isn't a glorious game, or a claim to fame
Just the same lame game.
