THE FOOLISH THIEF

By Nicole
Wiesenthal

It's crunch time.
Take the money and run,
Faster than a speeding bullet,
With only seconds to spare.

Frightened to death,
Goosebumps all over,
Running out of time,
Caught red-handed.

Come to grief,
He turns the gun on himself,
And kills two birds with one stone.

Faster than a jack rabbit,
Out like a light,
A legend in his own mind,
A fool and his money are soon parted.

Hell bent and heaven bound,
A millstone around his neck,
Death knocking at his door.

As fate would have it,
It goes without saying,
Life is messy,
It's a dog-eat-dog world.
