Untitled by Daniella Gershon

*Depart we will do to different paths we've mounted,
So unfortunately our days together are counted.
Yet my love for you will remain strong,
Unfaltering and forever long.
If goals lead us astray,
Know that they will not keep me away
From the man whose arms held me
once so tight,
The sensation always feeling so right.*

*Although by me
You may not always be,
In my heart you will forever remain,
And in my thoughts you will always reign.
Around you my dreams will revolve,
In hopes that one day we can resolve,
The endless ticking of the clock,
Soon marking the end to love's lock.*

*We cannot outrun time,
But to try is not a crime.
Let's not lay here in remorse
As destiny takes its course.
Rather take my hand,
Together we will stand,
Fighting ruthlessly until we win
Against time's cruel sin.*
