A Beauty So Mighty

by Damien Dwaine

A beauty so mighty
With a magnificent glare
That even the lovely Aphrodite
Wishes not to share.

But its glistening beam
Cannot be contained
For it is too supreme
And forever remains unrestrained.

The shades of darkness
Become revealed under its light,
It changes the heartless
With just one sight.

Its beauty will put you in a trance
With only one glance,
It fills the air
And lives without care.

Filled with wishes and dreams
Flying comets above
Stars sparkle and gleam
Releasing a radiation of love.

That spreads through us all
Releasing a natural high,
This magical wall
We call the Night Sky.
