The Light of Love

Carly Cowan

The essence of all that ever has
And ever will be human.
An incredible salvaging emanation
From the dark forever.

Forever shall it lead the world from damnation
Into the highest humanity,
Blinding to the guile of folly,
Unalterably indispensable.
The human holiness: devoid of religion.
The truth behind even that.

Of a disguised evil.
Intangibly felt.
Unbeknownst to us.
The sun of light and the moon of night.

Higher than ourselves.
Vested in ourselves.
It is ourselves.
We are the embodiment of that universal necessity.
