Religious Intolerance

Matthew Bartlett

Religious intolerance.
For some reason, people cannot embrace the differences
That make each of us unique.
They forget how to love,
But not how to hate.

In this world full of customs and cultures,
We all have traits that make us who we are.
None of us are superior,
And none of us are inferior.

People are full of prejudice, whether against Islam,
Or Judaism,
Or Christianity,
Or Hinduism,
And all of this is nothing more than senseless hatred.

Religious wars and violence
Fueled by this hatred,
Assassinations and terrorist attacks
All because we can't put our petty differences aside
And discover the true meaning of love and friendship.
