Fame

Amanda Mainguy

Addictive, yet abhorrent.
With spotlights, the limelight: the attention is enthraling.
The constant awareness, the encompassing darkness
Like a burning sin, fame is relished for all its substance.
An all-consuming fire,
Fame is overwhelming.
Strangling, twisting.
A burning fire sears through the fibers
That compose the fabric of one's being.

Fame is a fleeting game
Played with one's emotions.
Tag! You're it!
But the game turns sour
As the fun begins to ebb.

Fame is a rock, settled hard and cold in your stomach.
It twists and curls,
The groaning never ceases.
It gnashes its teeth, roaring back its head
As you scream for mercy.
