

7-2022

Letter from Editor

Follow this and additional works at: <https://nsuworks.nova.edu/jadara>

Recommended Citation

(2022). Letter from Editor. JADARA, 55(1), 1. Retrieved from <https://nsuworks.nova.edu/jadara/vol55/iss1/1>

This Note from the Editor is brought to you for free and open access by NSUWorks. It has been accepted for inclusion in JADARA by an authorized editor of NSUWorks. For more information, please contact nsuworks@nova.edu.

Welcome to the Summer 2022 issue of JADARA!

It has been an honor to serve the ADARA board over the past eight years, and I look forward to continuing my support for the organization through a new role: JADARA Editor-in-Chief.

For the past month, I have worked closely with the former editors, Drs. Thew Hackett and Kobek Pezzarossi, to smoothly transition into the Editor-in-Chief role. They have, and continue to be, an invaluable resource while I navigate the journal's platform, and learn the nuances of coordinating between authors, reviewers, and the copy editor. Watching the process behind the scenes, I have tremendous respect for all the work and dedication that they have put into ensuring that the quality of JADARA meets the mission of the journal. I am committed to emulating their professionalism as I work for the next few years with our current editorial board, many of whom have been staunch supporters of ADARA and JADARA, as well as reviewers who work tirelessly to provide quality reviews. In the next 1-2 years, I will be seeking an associate editor and will be expanding our reviewer resources. If you are interested in joining the editorial board and/or becoming a guest reviewer, please contact me at dparis@emporia.edu. I welcome your vast knowledge and contributions towards an excellent journal that has been in existence for over 60 years.

In this issue, we have two articles for your reading enjoyment. Please enjoy the rest of the summer and look for more JADARA publications in Fall 2022!

Damara Goff Paris, Ed.D., NCC, CRC, LPC