Revenge

Neha Kapila

Revenge is like a raging inferno, Ravaging the human mind
Both the fire and the vengeful mentality leave behind ashes and ruins The scars of a raging inferno, like those of
revenge,
Are permanent and irreversible.

Revenge is like an angry river disturbing the tranquility
Along its otherwise peaceful course
The turbulent mind seeks mindless revenge over inconsequential matters
Like the river overflowing its banks, Revenge overwhelms everything in its path.

Revenge is like a thunderous tornado, Leaving a path of destruction in its wake With the roar of a freight train, revenge is deafening even in its silence The calm mind is transformed into a raging storm of sound and fury.

Revenge is like a volatile volcano, Spewing its rage on the calm village below
Like a tumultuous volcano churning out lava,
The disturbed mind erupts with inflamed anger
It spreads like molten magma quickly smothering
And rendering lifeless anything that stands in its way.
Like fire, water, wind, and earth, revenge is a natural and destructive phenomenon.
