WHEREAS, Nova Southeastern University (NSU), Florida’s largest independent university, is being honored on the occasion of its 35th anniversary; and

WHEREAS, NSU has contributed to the personal and professional advancement of thousands of South Florida residents who have benefited from NSU’s quality educational programs; and

WHEREAS, NSU has served as an outstanding citizen offering a wide range of community services and programs for the benefit of the citizens of the state; and

WHEREAS, NSU is the result of a synergistic merger of Nova University and Southeastern University of the Health Sciences, the result of which has been the development of medical and health care education programs in Florida, which will prove beneficial to the community’s health and well-being; and

WHEREAS, NSU’s success in partnering with other educational institutions, state and local agencies, and community-based organizations has led to many successful cooperative efforts to enhance local access to advocacy, counseling, health care, and rehabilitative and other human services, to raise community awareness of existing services and resources, and to provide a forum to identify and address unmet local needs; and

WHEREAS, NSU’s role in bringing new skills and knowledge to the community will be of ultimate benefit to the education of Florida’s residents of all ages. NOW,

THEREFORE,

BE IT RESPECTFULLY PROCLAIMED that December 2, 1999, is recognized as Nova Southeastern University Day, in gratitude for the many benefits Nova Southeastern University has given to the citizens of Florida.

Debbie Wasserman Schultz
Representative, District 97
