- Conduct reading and writing workshops
- Design authentic assessment tools for English/language arts classroom use
- Formulate effective English/language arts learning outcomes
- Organize cooperative learning lessons for English/language arts classrooms
- Use the process writing approach
- Implement response-centered teaching
- Integrate writing and literature
- Generate alternative approaches to teaching grammar
- Develop strategies to motivate students and keep them engaged in learning in English/language arts classrooms
- Apply strategies to foster interaction with literature
- Debate the merits of various approaches to English/language arts curriculum organization
- Address language-related issues, including those related to dialects, vocabulary, and usage
- Advance ways to enhance oral communications and listening skills
- Become reflective teachers, analyzing and strengthening teaching practices
