Notice of Nondiscrimination
Nova Southeastern University admits students of any race, color, sex, age, nondisqualifying disability, religion or creed, or national or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school, and does not discriminate in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs.

Nova Southeastern University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097. Telephone number 404-679-4501) to award bachelor’s, master’s, educational specialist, and doctoral degrees.
The Programs in Communication Sciences and Disorders have been an approved sponsor of continuing education courses in the fields of audiology, speech-language pathology and related communication sciences since 1986.

The Institute sponsors or co-sponsors at least three major continuing education activities each year in areas such as swallowing disorders, voice pathologies, new technology for the hearing impaired, autism, and other areas in communication disorders such as issues in ethics, clinical supervision, and professional practices. The program also provides continuing education sponsorship for independent study for licensed speech-language pathologists and audiologists, and provides ongoing opportunities for professionals to access the latest information in the field.
