Death's Epiphany

Author Note

“If you saw the world through my eyes, you would realize that no form of government is fit to secure us from the tyranny of human nature. Our generation believes it’s breaking free from old conventions, while it’s actually conforming to the system which enslaves it. They say I’m weird. I say I’m free.”

Death's Epiphany

Kyle Boltson

I fear death for lack of faith.

Yet many times I have died in dreams, only to wake up and experience a greater reality.

Perhaps one day I will die, only to enter into a greater reality.
