

Call for Peer Reviewers

The Journal of Interdisciplinary Conflict Science is a double-blind peer reviewed academic journal committed to publishing articles that advance the understanding of social conflict. The JICS publishes manuscripts from numerous disciplines with experience or insight into conflict theory, conflict research, or the practice of conflict mitigation.

We welcome peer reviewers from all disciplines including but not limited to, academia, business and industry, economics, the social sciences, the law, international relations, diplomacy, and the humanities. We are seeking new peer reviewers for our editorial board.

If you have expertise within a field that experiences conflict or a specific knowledge of conflict studies and have an interest in the exchange of ideas, your participation as a peer reviewer is welcomed.

Please provide a cover letter which includes;

- Indicating your interest in becoming a reviewer,
- Relevant experience and areas of expertise,
- Any past or current research interests in the field of conflict.

In addition to your cover letter please include a copy of your current CV and verification of your highest degree earned (unofficial transcripts or a copy of diploma are accepted).

Please email cover letters and supporting documentation to the one of address below.

We very much look forward to hearing from you.

Mark George Bound, Ph.D.
Co-Founder/Editor-in-Chief
mgbound@phoenixresearch.org

Aleksandra Nestic, Ph. D.
Co-founder/Managing Editor
aleks.nestic@gmail.com