

PEACE AND CONFLICT STUDIES JOURNAL

Call for Reviewers

Peace and Conflict Studies (ISSN 1082-7307) is a peer reviewed academic journal that is committed to interdisciplinary explorations on conflict resolution, peace building, humanitarian assistance, and other alternative mechanisms that seek to prevent and control violence. PCS is also interested in these areas of focus for social change and nonviolence:

- sustainable development
- ecological balance
- community revitalization
- reflective practice
- action research
- social justice
- human rights
- gender equality
- intercultural relations
- grassroots movements
- organizational transformations
- peace education

Peace and Conflict Studies is indexed and/or abstracted in Peace Research Abstracts Journal, Public Affairs Information Service, Scopus, Sociological Abstracts, Psychological Abstracts, PsycINFO, Political Science Manuscripts, International Political Science Abstracts and Worldviews.

To continuously involve members of the global academic community in our publication, we are seeking new reviewers for our peer review team. If you have knowledge in the field of peace and conflict studies and are interested in the exchange of scholarly ideas, please provide a letter of interest. In your letter please describe your interest in becoming a reviewer, relevant experience, area of expertise, and research interests. In addition to your cover letter please include a copy of your current CV.

We very much look forward to hearing from you.
